The School-Based Health Centers program was founded in 1994 as a community outreach to underprivileged school-aged children. In collaboration with the BHHS Legacy Foundation, Arizona Department of Health Services, St. Vincent de Paul Dental Clinic and the Chris-Town YMCA, the program provides preventative and primary medical and dental care to children who are uninsured and underserved.

The program consists of nine licensed clinic sites in five school districts, along with a mobile health unit that serves 53 community schools. The School-Based Health Centers provide medical services to more than 3,400 children and dental services to more than 1,700 children annually.
